Initiating the Proposal For Boundary Change

What’s Required to be in the Application?
LAFCO APPLICATION
5 ELEMENTS

• APPLICATION FORMS
  (With Resolution or Petition)
• AB-8 AGREEMENT
• FEES
• MAP AND LEGAL DESCRIPTION
• CEQA DETERMINATION
  (City must Pre-Zone)
• SERVICE PLAN
APPLICATION BY AGENCY RESOLUTION

• Resolution of Intention Not Necessary
  – Notice of “Intention” is optional
  – Regular Hearing Notice Required

• Required Contents
  (56800 & 56700)
  – all proposed changes and if consistent with SOI
  – proposed terms and conditions
  – reason for the proposal
PETITIONS

• Landowners or Registered Voter Signature
  – Assessor or Registrar Determines Validity

• Specified Contents of Petition (§56700)
  – Reason for & nature of proposal
  – List all changes of organization
  – Proposed terms and conditions

• Intent to File Petition, Plus petition itself

• Certificate of Sufficiency Issued
AB-8 Agreement & Resolutions

• Negotiated Agreement for Plan to redistribute Property taxes after annexation is recorded

• Covers a Specified Geographic Area (Note: LAFCO can change boundaries later)

• LAFCO facilitates cooperation but cannot control or arbitrate disputes
Negotiations Process
Rev & Tax Code

1. LAFCO gives Notice of Proposal
2. Assessor sends info to Auditor
3. Auditor sends info to Agencies – 60 Day Clock Begins
4. Agencies agree or negotiate
5. Resolutions adopted by Subject Agencies and County
6. OR: Master Tax Agreement
Subject Agency: Boundary Change City/District

- Board and Subject Agencies Must Adopt Resolutions within 60 Days
- Board of Supervisors Negotiates for Affected Districts
  - Consultation with Agencies Required
  - Notice of Board Hearing
- Formal Mediation Required for Time Extension
Why Do All This?

- Prior to Prop 13, Taxes Just Went Up
- Agencies Added their Tax after Annexation

✓ Post-Prop 13, Revenues Are Redistributed
Master Tax Sharing Agreements

- No Resolutions
- Reduce Work
- Save Time
- Bi-Agency
- Multi-Agency
LAFCO BOUNDARY
CHANGES & AB-8

• LAFCO may add territory; AB-8 Agreement may not cover that land
• Any LAFCO change triggers an opportunity to renegotiate
• Affected agencies may request renegotiation - 15 days only
• If no agreement, the project terminates
