

| AB 2432 – Compliance with Cal Code for Incidental Sales of Pre-packaged Food that is NOT Potentially Hazardous | | | |
|--|---|---|---|
| Cal Code Section or Chapter | Description | Compliance of Facilities With Less Than Or Equal To 25 Square Feet Of Display Area | Compliance of Facilities With Greater Than 25 Square Feet to 300 Square Feet Of Display Area |
| 113980 114047 114049 | Food from approved sources Protection from contamination or adulteration Food storage | YES | YES |
| 114250 | Toilet facilities, clean, in good repair and accessible for employees during hours of operation. | NO | YES |
| 114266 | Facility must be fully enclosed | NO | YES |
| 114381 114387 | Permit required to operate the food facility Penalties for operating without necessary permit | NO | YES |
| 114390, 114393 114395 114397 | Environmental Health responsible for enforcement. Violation – misdemeanor Owner, manager or operator holds responsibility for violation(s) | YES | YES |
| 114405 114407 114409 114411 114413 | Permit suspension, right for permit holder to request hearing. Written notice of decision. Permit suspension/imminent health hazard. Permit revocation Permit reinstatement | NO | YES |
| Chapter 1 | General Provisions | YES | YES |
| Chapter 2 | Definitions | YES | YES |

All Cal Code sections not noted above do not apply to the incidental sale of pre packaged food that is potentially hazardous.